The Rules:

You can "buy" a square on the grid for $$$$. When all the squares are sold, we will pick numbers 0 through 9 for each team. The order that the numbers are picked, is the order they will be placed for each team. Left to right for the NFC Champions, top to bottom for the AFC Champions. Now, at the end of the first & second quarters a $$$ prize will be given to whoever has the square that matches the score. The last $$$$ prize will be given for the final score!

If you want to play, pick your squares, and Good Luck!!
